CANADA'S ICONIC MOTORCYCLE LEGENDS AND CHAMPIONS TO BE HONOURED IN BURNABY, BC AT THE THIRTEENTH ANNUAL CANADIAN MOTORCYCLE HALL OF FAME INDUCTION BANQUET

Burnaby, BC – October 2nd, 2018 – The Canadian Motorcycle Hall of Fame is pleased to announce the thirteenth annual induction banquet honouring the Class of 2018 taking place on November 17, 2018 at the Delta Hotels Burnaby Conference Centre in Burnaby, BC. Nine industry icons will be honoured for their remarkable contributions and dedication to Canadian motorcycling.

“The induction ceremony returns to Western Canada after nine years and it gives me great pride and pleasure to announce the 2018 Class of Inductees,” says Paul Germain, Chairman. “These competitors, contributors, volunteers and historical figures have shown passion, skills and sometimes sacrifices to make a positive impact on the world of motorcycling and we will now bestow the respect and recognition they deserve in the Hall of Fame.”

“The directors, contributors and volunteers of the Canadian Motorcycle Hall of Fame as well as myself, join together in welcoming the Class of 2018 inductees into the Canadian Motorcycle Hall of Fame:

- Daniel Amor                      Competitor, Deceased
- Steve Crevier                    Competitor
- Allan Dyck                        Competitor
- Joe & Vera Godsall            Contributor
- Rick Hobbs                        Team Member
- Wally Klammer                 Contributor/Competitor, Deceased
- Al Perrett                         Contributor/Competitor
- Dave Rhodes                      Contributor

Historical Inductees:

Bar and Hedy Hodgson established the Canadian International Motorcycle Heritage Museum Foundation in 1999 and when Dave Lloyd came to them with the idea of a Motorcycle Hall of Fame, they gifted the Foundation to the people. In 2006, the Canadian Motorcycle Hall of Fame was created to preserve and promote Canadian motorcycle history for the benefit of the motorcycling community and public and since then, over 130 distinguished motorcyclists and organizations have been inducted into the Hall of Fame. The Canadian Motorcycle Hall of Fame is a not-for-profit association with charitable status governed by an independent board of volunteer directors from across Canada.
